Key Characteristic Values of the Jesuit Educational Traditions

Santa Clara University, as a Jesuit Educational Institution imbibes various values and visions in the students by molding them to be better people outside the university, through curriculum and extracurricular activities, further bringing out the creativity and innovation in them - being a university in the Silicon Valley and to be in service to the commonwealth across the world.

The Key Values include:

- Search for Truth, Virtue and Vision
- Service to Everyone
- Community and Diversity
- Uniqueness of the Jesuits

Search for Truth, Virtue and Vision:

Accolades are given to students who traverse through the most crucial obstacles and facing the enigma of life by bringing innovative ideas and work with a creative mind to help in enhancing understanding of humans, further improving the overall quality of learning and teaching and doing it for the benefit of the society where freedom of academic learnings are sustained within the Jesuit traditions.

Service to Everyone:

Service to not just the community in Santa Clara who work and study here, but to the other deprived communities the Jesuits work with, is encouraged to create for them a better compassionate, devoted and livable world for them.

Community and Diversity:

The Jesuit Education admires and appreciates students, faculty and other members of the University community from diverse backgrounds with different cultures and traditions, making a better place to socialize and communicate with each other, irrespective of their nationality and considerate of their integrity.

Uniqueness of the Jesuits:

Respect for every religious and philosophical tradition and consolidating them in the Jesuit traditions is something that makes the Jesuit Educational Traditions unique. They welcome these beliefs with open arms to embrace it and strengthen one's belief in their religion.
